Success!!!

The "4th Back To School Jam" was a huge success. Charles Grigsby, one of the top ten semi-finalists of the 2003 season of American Idol, was taken to four South Florida schools Robert Renick, Gladstone Center for Girls, Ruth Owens Kruse, and The Village South Program. The day was filled with lots of laughter and knowledge. The purpose was to inform students of the importance of education and reading in their everyday life. Everyone was impressed at the professionalism we at No Jive Productions, Inc., offered. As always, we look towards the future at making this show and all our shows bigger and better.

THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING

No Jive presented Mr. Roach with a certificate for his outstanding commitment to the girls at the Glad Stone Center For Girls.

The next Jackson "FIVE" LOL

Nial Martin-President/CEO

First and foremost I thank GOD, for giving No Jive Productions, Inc a successful show and for blessing us with American Idol Charles Grigsby and his management for helping us to promote reading. In order for us to do shows like this we depend on donations from our community. Once again thank you for making No Jive Productions, Inc what it is today and that's LOVE :-)

Carlos A. Harris-Vice President

As always, No Jive Productions, Inc., is here for the community because without the community, there will be no, No Jive Productions, Inc. With having our bigger office, the matter of getting back to doing projects was important to the growth of No Jive Productions, Inc. This was the first "Back To School Jam," in a few years

NO JIVE STAFF-Nick names Mr. Brown, Smiley, Rickie Smiley, Chubaca from star wars. LOL
